Dear Friends of MUW,

This week we'd like to highlight a few of our new donors, Tim and Stacey Allen of Allen Brothers Farm in Westminster Vermont.

As Stacey explained, she had always admired MUW but because of a personal connection, she decided to become a donor, "I have been aware of MUW for years and have been friends with many of the chairs, but this past year became a bit more personal when my brother, Ted McGreer, became a General Campaign Co-Chair and I took a little more interest in what MUW does for our children and our community.

She went on to say,

"Living United and supporting an organization that encourages change, teamwork, and awareness is very important to us."

She is grateful to have MUW in her community because, "As a business that supports 50 plus staff members we see many different challenges in their lives and knowing MUW exists as a potential resource for them is just wonderful. Thank you for all that you do for our community!"

Stacey and Tim, we welcome you to the MUW Family! We are so appreciative of the support we get from you and all of our new donors! To see a list of all new donors to the 2021-22 campaign, please click here.

Sincerely,

Danya Landis, Karen Peterson, & Beth Wood
