An Update from MUW President Liz LaRose

Dear Friends of MUW,

The students in the National Junior Honor Society (NJHS) at Monadnock Regional Middle High School in Swanzey are on a mission to make a difference in our community. Recently, they put together a fundraising campaign and during the month of February competed against each other to see who could raise the most money—with all proceeds going to MUW!

Barbara Geiss, middle school Counselor and NJHS Advisor explained, “the NJHS members at the middle school raised the funds over the month of February as a weekly competition among home room classrooms. It was a lot of fun and got very competitive.”

Thank you to the students in the National Junior Honor Society at Monadnock Regional Middle High School for raising $271.40 to support MUW!

Your dedication to making a difference in our region by launching this competition is a reminder that you are never too young to start thinking about giving back and helping your neighbors!

Sincerely,
Liz LaRose, President
