Dear MUW Supporters,

Each year in April, the United Way and countless non-profit organizations around the globe celebrate volunteers and the impact they have in tackling our communities' greatest needs. National Volunteer Week is April 16 – 22 and we want to give a huge shout-out to all the volunteers in the Monadnock Region. These wonderful people selflessly contribute their time, talents, and energy to MUW, our partner agencies, local schools– the list goes on and on. You know who you are and we thank you!

Volunteering is a win-win

MUW's volunteers enjoy making a difference in our communities, but they are the first ones to say they get as much (or more) out of it as the organizations do. Many volunteers have stories that motivate others to take action – people like Floyd Plummer, a long-time MUW supporter, whose inspiring story Liz LaRose shared in her recent newsletter. Here's what some of our other volunteers had to say in a recent satisfaction survey:

"It was a pleasure and privilege to volunteer as well as very rewarding, knowing that the work I was a part of helped members of my community/region that need it the most."

"I felt my work [on the Investment Team] was impactful to the region. The work helped steer the direction of MUW, helped the MUW staff work more efficiently and effectively, and helped determine the best way to invest MUW funds."

"I was able to meet so many wonderful people from co-workers and fellow volunteers, as well as those organizations helped by MUW."

Interested in volunteering? MUW has opportunities available for people of all ages, skill levels, and interests.

Do you love finance, working with children, helping those experiencing homelessness, or office work? MUW is currently looking for volunteers to assist with multiple projects: from campaign fundraising to committee level work to hands-on "one-and-done" projects for individuals and groups, there are many options to volunteer.

You can help us fulfill our mission of fighting for children, education, and financial stability in every community throughout our region! Email Kate Cote or call 603-352-4209 ext. 28 to learn more about volunteer opportunities.

Sincerely,
Chris Coates, Cheshire County Administrator
