Dear Supporters of MUW,

Happy Dog Days of Summer! We all know that crickets chirping, shorter days, and a slight chill in the air means that fall is right around the corner. And MUW staff and volunteers are gearing up for another campaign season.

Although most people associate giving to MUW with our annual campaign, I'd like to introduce another avenue for giving, one that is lesser known but growing in popularity: including MUW in your will or estate planning so your generosity to our community will continue to benefit future generations.

Planned giving is a way to solidify your dedication to providing food, shelter, and financial opportunities to those in need and quality, affordable childcare for children and their families. It ensures that our community thrives now and in the future, creating a lasting legacy that transforms lives for generations to come.

future in a number of ways, depending on what works best for you and your family:

- Name MUW as a beneficiary in your will
- Make a gift of appreciated securities, including stock, bonds, and mutual funds
- Name MUW as a beneficiary of a retirement plan
- Name MUW as a beneficiary of a life insurance policy
- Consider the Individual Retirement Account (IRA) charitable rollover option
