

Partner with MUW to Maximize Your Local Impact

Dear MUW Supporters,

MUW relies on multiple sources of financial support to provide critical assistance to our community's most vulnerable members and help ensure our region's future. Sponsorship from local companies and organizations is critical to our ability to play this vital role. There are several levels of sponsorship, from $1,000 to $25,000, to ensure that every organization can participate in supporting our community.

In this newsletter we would like to highlight our Community Hall of Fame sponsors: Kapiloff Insurance Agency and Monadnock Paper Mills.

Community Hall of Fame Sponsorship

Both Kapiloff Insurance Agency and Monadnock Paper Mills are family-owned businesses that were founded in the Monadnock Region and have been in operation for decades (in the case of Monadnock Paper Mills, centuries!). They recognize the importance of giving back to the community and are proud to support MUW as well as many other non-profits.

Alex Kapiloff, Owner/President of Kapiloff Insurance Agency and Treasurer of MUW Board of Directors, shares why being an MUW sponsor is meaningful to him.

"At Kapiloff, we support MUW because the collective impact model helps move the needle in a way that far exceeds what we can do on our own. I appreciate the fiscal and outcome measurements as well. It's a wonderful feeling knowing we can contribute, and our dollars and time are truly helping our community."

This level of sponsorship is a sweet spot for many local businesses. For only $2,500 a year, your organization can demonstrate a commitment to social responsibility and receive year-round visibility in the community.

Benefits of the Community Hall of Fame Sponsorship include:

- Positive public recognition as a committed community partner
- Prominent brand visibility through logo placement on the MUW sponsorship brochure, website (6,750 visitors annually), and biweekly newsletter (5,000 subscribers)
- Mention in the newsletter about Community Hall of Fame sponsors
- Increased employee engagement due to pride in their employer

Together We Help Communities Thrive

Working together, we will build a stronger, more resilient community. MUW invests your charitable dollars in over 30 programs and community-building initiatives across the region, addressing needs for children, education, and financial stability in each community in the Monadnock Region.
